

AUGUST 4 1949

O RADESCU Nicolae (gen)

General Radescu continues to pay for the scholarships. Since April, however, he has been giving only 120000 Francs per month.
Athenaeus Nacu, formerly eman of affairs from Bucharest, who has opened here a firm and who has money, has given 80000 francs per month.
The scholarships have been paid for July also.
Nacu, who helps the Rumanians very much, is a friend of the Iron Guard.

AUGUST 2 1949

A Rumanian who has in Paris an address which can easily be confused with the actual address of Herescu, ~~had~~ received a post card addressed to Herescu from Baibu Niculescu. This post card said that General Radescu can still take out money for an edition of the newspaper UNIUNEA. It seems from this news that the financial status of this paper is having difficulty.

Em. Ciurea August 4. 1949

Radescu continua sa plateasca bursele. Din Aprilie, insa, nu da decat 120000 franci lunar, iar Nacu, un fost om de afaceri de prin Bucuresti, care si-a deschis si aici o firma si are multi bani, da 80.000 lunar. Bursele s-au platit si pe Iulie. Nacu, care ajuta mult pe comonalisti, este prieten cu Garda de Fer.

Ar. Burilliamu. August 2 1949

Un Roman care are in Paris o adresa destul de usor de confundat cu actuala adresa a lui Herescu, a primit o carte postala adresata acestuia de catre Barbu Niculescu, in care ii spune ca Generalul R. mai poate scoate bani pentru un numar al gazetei "Uniunei". Pare a rezulta din aceasta misiva ca finantarea acelei foi intampina oarecare dificultati.
